SSRANZ — Sabah Sarawak Rights Australia New Zealand

SSRANZ is one of the most prominent allied organisations supporting Sabah's right to self-determination. Based in Australia, SSRANZ has been actively advocating for Sabah and Sarawak's rights for many years, engaging with Australian parliamentarians, the United Nations, and the international media. The RSNB-GIE works closely with SSRANZ on joint advocacy and international submissions.

Solidarity with Global Independence Movements

The RSNB-GIE maintains relationships with other peoples' movements who have faced similar struggles for self-determination and who understand the importance of international solidarity. We draw inspiration from movements that have successfully achieved their goals through peaceful, lawful advocacy.

Human Rights Organisations

We work alongside international human rights organisations to document and publicise the ongoing violations of Sabahan rights. These organisations provide independent verification of our claims and amplify the Sabahan voice in international human rights forums.
